

HERE IT IS!
THE SECOND STATUE IN ILMDA'S SERIES

"LUMBER SANTA"

By reowned artist: Larry Wetherholt

Yes, Wetherholt has done it again. He has handcrafted a fine statue cast in pecan wood resin and hand painted depicting life in the lumber industry.

Commissioned by ILMDA to create a series of industry related statues, Wetherholt has captured the twinkle and pride of "Lumber Santa" as he works with wood to create Christmas toys.

If your life is based on lumber and timber, then you cannot afford to miss this rare opportunity to decorate your home, office or store with this fine collectable.

Notice Wetherholt's artistic and whimsical workmanship!

"Lumber Santa" is wearing bibbed overalls with a saw hanging on the right side and a hammer hanging on the left side and his nail apron is full of tools.
